Doesn't make Coffee good, does it? If it DID, all Coffee
would be the best.

No—it takes more than talk. It takes a knowledge of what is what in Coffee to pick and choose—to pick and choose the GOOD, and let the rest go. Because there are a great number of Coffees that masquerade under false colors. We want you to judge our Coffee by the coffee itself, not by what we say.

If we could get every person in town to do that we would never need to say much regarding Coffee again,
for we have really superior Coffee values.

WEIGH LIGHT.

Carlisle Mercury: "Tobacco is going to weigh light this year, it seems. A local tobacco man tells us he saw a crop grown from 2 acre in Fayette county delivered at the Shelburne warehouse last Friday. Tobacco men who saw the crop come in guessed its weight anywhere from 2,500 to 3,200. The scales showed the crop weighed just 1,900."

ADMITTED TO BAR.

After a very rigid examination before attorney's J. E. Robinson and Lewis L. Walker, in our circuit court last Friday, Messrs Ike Wallace, and J. H. Coleman of Lexington and John S. Deering, of Nicholasville, were granted license to practice law. All these young men showed proficiency in their work and were warmly congratulated upon their creditable examination.

LOSES TOBACCO BARN.

Last Thursday night about nine o'clock, the large tobacco barn of Mr. W. B. Moss, located on the Lexington pike, was destroyed by fire from an unknown origin. The barn was fifty by one hundred feet and contained six acres of tobacco, several hundred bales of hay and a lot of farming implements. Mr. Moss informs us that his loss will be about $2500, with $1600 insurance.

ANDERSON-TURNER

Mr. Walter Turner, a prosperous young farmer of lower Garrard, and Miss Lucretia Anderson, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Anderson of the Sugar Creek section of this county, were united in marriage in this city on last Wednesday, Elder F. M. Tindler, officiating.

REYNOLDS-SMITH.

Miss Bettie Reynolds, who has been such a popular and efficient clerk for some time at J. E. Dickerson's store, surprised her friends by slipping over to Stanford, her former home, and being united in marriage to Mr. Curtis Smith of Danville, the Christian minister, Rev. D. M. Walker, officiating. The happy couple left at once for a bridal trip to Illinois, after which they will be happily located at Danville. Friends here wish them a long life of happiness.

MILES-CARTER.

Miss Agnes Miles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Miles, of Buckeye, is to be married today to Mr. Hubert Carter, son of Mr. Mal Carter, also of the Buckeye section of the county. The marriage ceremony is to take place in Winchester at the home of Miss Nancy Long, who is a devoted friend of the bride.

Miss Miles is a charming and beautiful young lady and has many accomplishments which has endeared her to the people of this county, who wish her and the fortunate young man much joy and happiness on their matrimonial voyage.

GOOD SHOW AT LEXINGTON.

Aside from "The Garden Of Allah" that appears at the Lexington Opera house next week, the one Saturday of this week is going to be a hummer. It is a musical comedy entitled, "When Dreams Come True" and will be shown Friday night, Saturday matinee and night. Telephone Manager Scott and good seats will be reserved for you.

WANTS KENTUCKY RABBITS

While Kentucky in the infancy of its efforts to re-establish old-time hunting conditions in restocking the fields with birds and the mountains with big game, Pennsylvania is short of rabbits and has requested Executive Agent J. Q. Ward, of the Game and Fish Commission, to secure thirty-six dozen bunnies from the well-stocked fields of Kentucky. Pennsylvania will pay 35 cents the head for rabbits sent in good condition, and Mr Ward is corresponding with people, who, he believes, can fill the order. The men who secure the rabbits will receive the full amount offered by the state of Pennsylvania.

MISSIONARY RALLY.

The Christian Womans Board of Mission held a most inspiring rally throughout Sunday and Monday, presided over by Mrs. George Robinson in her usual pleasing manner. Sunday morning the cause was presented by Eld. F. M. Tindler; the remaining services were in charge of women from foreign fields or holding national or State offices. The Medical Missionary to Central Province, India, Dr. Longdon, first left the U. S. in 1899, after having finished the prescribed course at the University of Penn. Being home on a furlough she has just completed a special study at the same University, to return to have charge of the first and only Tuberculosis Sanatorium in Central Province to be located at Pendra Road.

Mrs. Ford, of Buenos Aires, Argentina, has been on the Mission field in Porto Rico and South America for fifteen years, having charge of Girls Orphanages and general evangelistic work, and when health permits will return. Mrs. Effie Payne of Indianapolis, National Childrens worker. Mrs. Geo. Walden of Danville, State Childrens worker and Mrs. Louise Campbell, State Secretary, added much to the various programs, and that all of the speakers were chosen of God and empowered for their work, was the impression made on every heart. Many other out of town guests made happy fellowship; may a rich harvest come from the great sowing.

LEW HOLMES DEAD

Popular Salesman Passes Away Of Acute Indigestion.

When C. Lew Holmes died of acute indigestion last week in Harrodsburg, one of the best known and most popular salesman making this territory, passed from among us. He retired about nine o'clock in his usual good health and spirits, but in less than an hour he was suddenly stricken and a physician was summoned and then another, but he grew rapidly worse and died at eleven o'clock. As had been his habit for the past fifteen years, Mr Holmes was in Lancaster the day before his death, it being our regular County Court day, for it was on these days that he met his friends and customers among the country merchants. He traveled for the Louisville Stove and Tin Co and was the President of this firm at one time. His home was in Louisville where he is survived by his wife and one step-son.

CIRCUIT COURT

In Second Week Of Session.

Circuit court which begun here Monday November 22nd for a three weeks term is still in session, with the docket being rapidly cleared of all common-wealth and civil cases. The following cases have been disposed of since last issue. J. B. Brown vs. Emma Kindard, for alienating the affections of his wife, the jury found in favor of the defendant; Joe Boan vs. Colored Baptist Church, found for defendant; Commonwealth vs. J. H. Walker, for cutting Henry Teater, drew a fine of $250, to be served out in jail if not paid; Commonwealth vs. Abe Faulkner, for house breaking, gets a two year term in the pen; Commonwealth vs. Anchor Life Insurance Company, were found guilty of rebating in two cases and given fines of $400 and $500 respectively; Commonwealth vs. John Faulkner, flourishing deadly weapon, was fined $50; A. J. Caddell will case has occupied the court for two days and is being stubbornly fought by able council on both sides. The will was probated in the county court a few months ago, and was appealed to the circuit court by some of the heirs who hope to have it set aside. Jury in this voted to sustain the will. Charlie Baierlein was granted a divorce from his wife, Sally Baierlein; Tildie Marshbanks divorced from Willie Marshbanks, restored to maiden name, Tildie Dav, and granted custody of child.

The grand-jury is still in session, but has adjourned to meet again Friday. Up to going to press they had returned in about 40 indictments, mostly for misdemeanors. Mr. C. Hager refused to testify before this august body and was brought before the court and for his contempt was given a fine of $25 and sent to jail for 30 days.

The three Waylands have been holding the boards at the Opera House this week and are showing to large and pleased audiences Their last appearance will be to-night, and you will miss a good vaudeville if you fail to see them.

LARGE HEMP DEAL

Probably the largest single crop of hemp sold in the county this season, was the one recently purchased by H. B. Cox, of Rankin brothers, containing all told about 160 acres. We were unable to get the price but as Mr. Cox is considered a pretty liberal buyer, we presume the price was a fancy one. Mr. Cox represents E. F. Spears and Son of Paris.

CARLSBAD SPRINGS

Sold To Lexington Capitalists.

A stock company composed of Lexington capitalists has just closed a deal for the famous Carlsbad Springs in Grant county and the deed has been filed. It took about $115,000 to consummate the deal and a stock company was immediately organized with Dr. A. G. Payne, of Lexington, as President, J. W. Glover, Vice-President and J. W. Stears, of Dry Ridge, as Secretary and Treasurer. The company is capitalized at $135,000, with $60,000 preferred stock and is held by residents of Lexington, Georgetown and Dry Ridge. Contracts have been let for extensive improvements and the directors have voted to build another modern hotel on the Evon Moore tract.

TEN POUND FISH

Victim Of Deadfall Set For Coon.

Mr. Boyd Osbourne, who lives near the mouth of Sugar Creek on the Kentucky river has been quite successful as a trapper this fall and his latest catch in one of his deadfalls, establishes a reputation for him that will be looked upon with envy by others who follow this profession. One day last week he set a deadfall near the edge of the river for a coon that he knew lived near the spot, and the trap was baited with a large piece of chicken, a very toothsome morsel for his "coonship", but that night the river rose and the trap was entirely submerged. Three days later the river fell and left the trap high and dry and to Mr. Osbourne's surprise he found it contained a large catfish that weighed exactly ten pounds. This may sound a little "fishy" but it is vouched for by several of the neighbors who were called in to see the wonderful catch.

DIRT IS BROKEN.

For Lancaster's New Government Building.

When Postmaster General A. S. Burleson laid down a rule for the construction of post office building, the one intended for Lancaster is not to be considered in this category, for the appropriation has been made for the lot which was purchased several years ago and paid for. Beside this, bids have been advertised for the soil investigation, which contract was awarded to Messrs J. A. Beazley and Horace Herndon last week and the work is now well under way. The contract price for this work was $90.45, approved and accepted by the government and is to be completed in a certain time.

When the United States Treasury Department called upon the Postmaster General for information about certain government buildings this rule was cited:

"In this connection I desire to invite your attention in this department's view that Government-owned quarters should not be provided for postoffice purposes exclusively unless the rental paid by the Government is as much as $1,000 a year, and then only when either the gross postoffice receipts amount to as much as $15,000 per annum or the population to as much as 5,000."

WHO WILL BE ASSISTANT

To The Secretary of State.

In the event J. P. Lewis, Republican, is declared winner over Barksdale Hamlett, Democrat, in the contest for Secretary of State, a pretty problem may arise over the naming of an Assistant Secretary of State, the law providing that the appointment of assistant by the State Secretary shall be approved by the Governor. Were Mr. Lewis to name a Republican as his assistant Gov. Stanley might decline to approve the appointment, insisting that Mr. Lewis, though a Republican, appoint as Assistant Secretary of State a Democrat.

Gov.-elect Stanley has never been approached with a view of ascertaining what he would do under the circumstances, it is understood, but politicians have been speculating on such a contingency. Some of them are of the opinion that Gov. Stanley would take the position that "to the victor belongs the spoils", and therefore would not interfere with the Secretary of State, though he be a Republican, in the appointment of his assistant.

Appointment with salaries aggregating approximately $200,000 annually will be at the disposal of Gov. Stanley immediately or soon after his inauguration December 7. His own salary, as Governor, will be $6000 a year. In addition he will be given the mansion at Frankfort, furnished, to live in for four years. The heat and light consumed in the mansion during that time will be paid for by the State.

The Madison Tobacco Warehouse will open for the first sale of Tobacco, Thursday, December 2nd. Will receive tobacco any time before this date that you wish to bring it. We are the oldest Loose Leaf House in this city, have been independent at all times and expect to remain so.

Our five years experience under the same management is worth much to you, who sell tobacco. Elmer Deatherage will be the manager giving all his time to you. Everybody who knows him, knows that he is a hustler, and usually gets a little better price than the other fellow. Julian Million will be his able assistant, and Jess Cobb, our auctioneer, there is none better than Jess, you can understand every bid made when Jess is selling.

Our buying force will be larger than last year, and every concern represented on other markets we expect here. If our dealings with you of Garrard County, have been fair and honest, if we have pleased you in the manner that we have conducted your business, why would you wish to try an experiment. Experiments cost dearly some times. You want the very best price for your tobacco, this we propose to get you, this you are entitled to.

We thank you for past patronage, this you have given us freely, for five years we have sold more tobacco than all other houses combined on this market. We know you have confidence in us, our business will be conducted in such a manner to hold this confidence. We invite you most cordially to visit our house and to attend our first sale especially, that you can get a line on prices. The crop in Garrard is a fine one and we expect to secure some very high crop averages for you this season. Thanking you again.

OLD AND NEW WAY TO TREAT CATARRH

Breathing a Germ Killing Air Endorsed By Actual Results.

The discovery of Hyomei has wrought a wonderful change in the treatment of catarrh.

Prior to three years ago the medicines ordinarily employed in the cure of this disease were drugs, sprays, lotions etc. In some instances they benefited but the improvement was not lasting.

With Hyomei you take into the air passages of your throat and head a balsamic air that goes into the minutest cells, and should effectually kill all germs and microbes of catarrh. Its purpose is to enter the blood with the oxygen, killing the germs in the blood, and restore health to the whole system. Many astonishing testimonials have been helped by Hyomei.

A complete outfit is inexpensive and includes an inhaler, dropper and sufficient Hyomei for several weeks' treatment.

Perhaps the strongest evidence that can be given to doubters, is the fact that R. E. McRoberts has so much faith in Hyomei that he sells every package under a positive guarantee to refund the money if it does not relieve.

'Tis this only that I want
Oh! give me an old-time doze.

THE GARDEN OF ALLAH

Coming To Lexington.

Allah stands at the head of all gardeners, and any one in doubt should go and see THE GARDEN OF ALLAH, by Robert Hichens and Mary Anderson de Navarro, which comes to the Lexington Opera House on Wednesday and Thursday December 8th and 9th, for three performances. A special matinee being given on Thursday afternoon.

The first rise of the curtain will reveal the great desert stretching away like an ocean of sand. Its countless dunes rising and falling like mighty swells, and the morning sun sending its ruddy rays up from the depths, messengers of its gladness coming to illuminate and revivify the world.

And across the sand strange beings pass like specters that seem to come into one's presence from that mysterious past, and who, saying not a word, bow in homage to the new day.

The desert vanishes and a town hotel is shown, alive with strife and turmoil. This gives place to another, and again another, filled with restlessness and trouble, the silence having been replaced by the noise of weird babble. Another change, and one is before a wondrous garden, a vision of the way the world ought to be, and may have been in the beginning.

This scene vanishes, in its turn, and one is in the very centre of a real sand-storm—a storm that makes its own darkness, whose fierceness is a tempest of dashing sand. And then it is night and the stars are out in all their glory. The Milky Way seems almost to touch the earth.

And last of all, is the scene of the monastery, the place where peace and rest have their home and where the tired soul is safe and secure in the very presence of its God.

In the midst of all these wonderful scenes, the principals and supporting company, the Arabs, camels, horses, donkeys, goats, pigeons, etc., fill their roles and do their parts so impressively that the performance is replete with dramatic climaxes.

Orders sent for seats to Manager Chas. Scott will receive prompt attention it accompanied by a remittance and a self addressed envelope. No attention will be paid to orders unless this rule is observed.

WOMAN'S AGE.

It may be difficult to tell what is a woman's age, but unquestionably this is it. Men's colleges into which women have made their way have had to drive them out again in order to give the men a chance at graduation honors. From the pulpit and the bar down to the coal mine and the iron furnace women are doing what used to be regarded as man's work. The literature of the day is overwhelmingly feminist in its character and very much of it is the work of women. Men are being told things about women that it was not deemed proper for their fathers to know, and as for themselves, they are being shown up without remorse.

Within a few days illustrations of the feminist revolution, physically and intellectually, have become public. Man is destined to lose even his physical superiority. The superintendent of a hospital in Boston, where 3,000 babies are born annually, says: "We have noticed that girl babies are getting taller and that they are appearing in this world lately with more real vitality than formerly. The boy babies continue on the average, both in weight and height."

Sick Headache.

Sick headache is nearly always caused by disorders of the stomach. Correct them and the periodic attacks of sick headache will disappear. Mrs. John Bishop of Roseville, Ohio, writes: "About a year ago I was troubled with indigestion and had sick headache that lasted for two or three days at a time. I doctored and tried a number of remedies but nothing helped me until during one of those sick spells a friend advised me to take Chamberlain's Tablets. This medicine relieved me in a short time." ## Good Health Doubles the Value of Your Services

A half sick man is not worth half pay. A man or woman in poor health makes a poor leader, a poor sort of a parent.

The value of Peruna in the home can scarcely be estimated. It prevents many of the common ailments. It is an excellent remedy for coughs, colds, catarrh, grip, spring fever, tired-out feeling.

Sit down and think it over. See whether you can afford to go on half sick.

Some people prefer Peruna Tablets to the fluid Peruna.

"AMERICA FIRST," TITLE OF GOVERNMENT POSTER.

"America First," is the title of the newest Government poster tacked up in the post-office lobby for the benefit of the foreign-born element with us. The poster shows a large picture of Uncle Sam greeting the immigrant.

Below this picture, in six different languages besides English, is printed the following suggestion and information:

Learn English, attend night school, become a citizen.

It means a better opportunity and a better home in America.

It means a chance for your children. It means a better America.

Ask the nearest public school about classes. If there is none in your town write to the National Americanization Committee, 95 Madison avenue, New York, or to the Bureau of Education, Washington.

THE WOMANS CLUB COLUMN.

Last Friday afternoon was a very squally one, a real winter day with snow and a cold rain, but thirty women answered the roll call and felt fully repaid as the subject discussed was a most interesting one and was ably handled by Mrs. Stormes and her helpers. A pleasant feature of the afternoon was the return of Mrs. McRoberts after an absence of three months. She was given a hearty hand clap and the Chautauqua salute upon her entrance into the club room.

***

We hope all the woman in town will avail themselves of the opportunity to study the work of the great masters which will be on exhibition in the Woman's Club room Dec. 12-13. It is a most helpful thing to study the drawings of great masters. Thru them we can clearly see the mind of the worker in the process of creating. Every line, every dot, every touch becomes a thing of interest, since it reveals the master's method. If as mothers and busy women our minds are too full of the vexing problems of the day and we have no time for these finer influences, then at least let us help our children to love beauty and appreciate the good and beautiful in art by seeing that they take advantage of this glimpse into that true source of wealth from which the soul can draw its time of need. "If you get simple beauty and naught else you get about the best thing God invents.....and you'll find the soul you have missed within yourself, when you return him thanks".

***

It will only cost you 5 and 10 cts. to see these beautiful Medici prints, fifty-four in number. Besides seeing the pictures you can enjoy a social hour or afternoon in the club room. Below is given a classified list of these pictures. Club members, especially are asked to study the different schools represented and the lives of the different artists whose pictures will be shown. The club room will be open all hours of the day and interested children will have any or all pictures explained to them.

We are authorized to announce Miss Jennie Higgins a candidate for County
School Superintendent of Garrard County, subject to the action of the Democratic primary August 1917.

Henry Ford is ambitious to be called a "pacifier". Some one suggest that he had better do his "pacifying" by wireless in midocean. At any rate we feel that Henry might just as well have stayed at home and catered to the "idle poor" by cheapening his little benzene buggy for all the good he will do in bringing the war to a close.

STANDS WITH

ADMINISTRATION.

State Senator Charles F. Montgomery
of Liberty, who is the holdover member of the upper branch of the Legislature
from the Casey-Boyle Lincoln-Garrard
district, was a visitor in Louisville yesterday. Senator Montgomery expects the coming session to be one of the most important in the history of the State, and when asked his attitude
he replied: "I stand squarely on the Democratic platform and shall do everything in my power to uphold Gov. Stanley's administration." The Casey county Senator was one of the most influential members in the last session. Louisville Times.

BAD COLDS CONTAGIOUS.

Modern medical science recognizes the common cold as so contagious that the cages of the valuable anthropoid apes in the London "zoo" are fitted nowadays with glass fronts to protect them, not from "cold" meaning low temperature, but from the "cold" germs brought into the buildings by visitors who come to observe the animals.

Everyone nowadays knows, or may find out very easily, that a "cold" is a communicable germ disease and that the best breeding place for the germs
—the best place for their transference
—is in a close atmosphere such as that of a closed and ill-ventilated public vehicle in which all sorts of conditions of human beings are gathered.

Our common ancestor, the anthropoid ape, is rarer than the rest of us, especially in great cities and in latitudes in which he does not flourish out of doors and "upon his own," as Londoners say. Measures for his protection are praiseworthy. They also are suggestive.

If an anthropoid ape must be protected from infection by persons who come to the front of his cage where they stand well back from the bars and look at him, will not the time come when there will be greater interest in protecting ourselves from one another in public conveniences? The wheezy fellow who plumps down in the seat against you in the street car, at any time after September and before May, thinks he has an inalienable right to prevent you from ventilating your allotment of space, but that you have no right to object to his spraying you with the infection of "cold" and sending you home incubating a cold which will put you in the dumps, and in positive danger for three weeks, and in all probability attack all of the other persons in the house.

In London, where the apes are looked after, human beings also have a chance. Public conveyances provide inside seats and a stuffy atmosphere from those who like to be protected from draughts, and outside seats for those who like to be protected from draughts. But in America all of us are herded together in cars which breed
cold germs and other germs as a Jersey marsh breeds mosquitoes. —Courier Journal.

It would be well for many to read this. Many who have bad colds are thoughtless, and there are others who are ignorant. The person who ex-pectorates in or on a register, who coughs and sneezes without holding a handkerchief over his nose and mouth and who expectorates on the street is not only both but he is scattering germs that may mean death to some one.

Lime, sand, brick, cement, rock screening etc. Hudson, Hughes and Farnau.

EQUAL TO THE LANCASTER BUTTER SEPERATOR.

"I saw a hoop snake drink a gallon of sweet milk out of a crock in my cave last week," said one of our farmer friends, whose confidence we shall hold sacred on account of the splendid reputation for truth and veracity he now enjoys. "The snake then crawled out of the cave, stuck his tail in his mouth and rolled down the hill. He lost control of himself and could not put on the brake, so he skidded against a small sapling and had a "blow-out".
When I got down the hill there on the ground lay the punctured remains of his snakeship and beside him a pound of butter." —Richmond Register.

GARRARD BOY HONORED.

Grover C. Wilson, of Paint Lick, Ky., was recently elected President of the Patterson Literary Society, one of the leading Literary Societies of the University. This is a much coveted honor and happy is he who can measure up to the standards thereof.

This election is rounded out by a long continuous series of honors which might well be envied by any man. The writer does not propose to extend himself on the good things that might be said concerning each and every important event connected with Mr. Wilson's stay at State but will withdraw in favor of his extraordinary record
which speaks for itself as follows:

The Lanier Medal 1911, for oratory;
The Crum Medal 1913, for Declaiming;
Barker Short Story Prize 1914, Bennett
Prize 1914; Freshman Debating Team; Sophomore Debating Team; Varsity Debating Team against Vanderbilt; Assistant Librarian for two years.

He made the regular four years High School course in two and one half years, at the same time making his way. One year he made forty-five dollars per month and carried his regular work.
He is now a candidate for the Rhodes Scholarship whereby he has a good showing for the forty-five hundred dollar scholarship at Oxford, England.
Is Senior Class Orator. Has been in school for six years and has not missed
a class, which the writer considers one of Mr. Wilson's greatest achievements.
This one thing is characteristic of the man. He is very prompt, conscientious and energetic.

A long article might be well written concerning any one of the above named accomplishments, but at present it will suffice to say that not only Garrard county but even Kentucky might be proud of such a promising son.

100 F BANQUET.

Decidedly one of the most enjoyable
banquets ever given by Franklin Lodge, was that last Tuesday evening in their lodge room. About one hundred guests were present, including the entire membership, together with their immediate family. Every thing that could be thought of was there in abundant, prepared by the good wives of this noble order.

Several speakers were on hand and added very materially to the pleasure of the evening.

BUTTER FROM SWEET CREAM In Less Than Four Minutes.

The Lancaster Butter Separator is still the talk of the town and those who have seen it are still wondering at its simplicity and its marvelous rapidity
as a butter separator. Before a crowd of fifty or more in the store of Davidson and Doty last Saturday afternoon, beautiful butter was separated from sweet cream in less than four minutes.
The quality of the butter is unexcelled and the price of the machine is in the reach of all. Mr. R. H. Batson is demonstrating it every day and will give anyone a private audience at any time you should phone him. Don't fail to see it work, its a wonder.

TRANSYLVANIA COLLEGE NOTES

"A college education increases one's chance for success three hundred per cent."

The annual meeting of the Kentucky Inter-collegiate Association will be held at the Phoenix Hotel, December 4th, and will be attended by the presidents and faculty representatives of the college of Kentucky. Dean T. B.
Macartney will read a paper on "The Junior College."

Mr. H. S. Hilley, of Acworth, Ga., is now in his second year at Oxford University. He was appointed by competitive examination to a Rhodes scholarship in 1914. This scholarship yields $1500 a year for three years.
Mr. Hilley made his way entirely during his four years in Transylvania, where he received the A. B. degree in 1913.

By defeating University of Louisville
26 to 0 on Thanksgiving, the Transylvania foot ball team became champions of Kentucky. Coach Stewart's "machine" did not lose a game in the Kentucky or Southern Association during the season, and was scored against but once. The Thanksgiving game next year will be played at Lexington.

"Though egotistic, clanish, and frequently afflicted with crass imbecility college men nevertheless lead the world."

WALKER

Mr. J. Wade Walker, one of Garrard county's best known and most highly respected citizens, passed peacefully
away Tuesday morning at ten o'clock.
Death was due to blood clot on the brain and a general break down, for several weeks his life has been hanging as by a thread. The members of his family have been almost constantly at his bedside, and everything possible for his relief and comfort was done but without avail. Mr. Walker was sixty-seven years old and came of a prominent and influential family which has long been identified with the pioneer days of the county.

He was a devoted member of the Presbyterian church, having been an elder at Paint Lick for twenty years.
His long and useful life has been one of temperate, steady and industrious habits, being known as one of the most progressive and scientific farmers in the county.

He was just and upright in all his dealings with his fellowmen. Devoted and generous to his family, a faithful friend and kind neighbor, he enjoyed universal confidence and esteem, and all who knew him testify to his high moral character, honesty and integrity and to his peaceful and honorable life.

In 1872 Mr. Walker was married to Miss Florence Moran, and she, with their two children, Miss Estelle Walker and Dr. Frank Walker of Louisville, survive him.

Funeral services, conducted by Rev.
Eldridge, were held this Thursday morning at the old Paint Lick church, of which he was a member, and the remains, under a mound of beautiful flowers, were laid to rest in the cemetery at that place.

MRS. B. M. BURDETTE

Passes Away Following Paralytic Stroke.

Mrs. Belle Walton Burdette died in Lexington last Thursday morning at half past six o'clock following a stroke of paralysis. She had been ill since last spring, when she returned from Florida, and the stroke was incident to a general breakdown.

Mrs. Burdette, who was sixty-eight years old, was the widow of our native townsman, B. M. Burdette, who died sixteen years ago. When a young lawyer he wooed and won Miss Belle Walton of Mason County, and brought her to Lancaster as a bride. She was not only a helpmeet in every sense of the word but his people were her people and his town was her town ever after.

Bright, happy and cheerful she carried sunshine wherever she went and she carried a pleasant smile and up-lifting words into many a desolate home.
During the first years of her married life
and all the years she lived with us her sweet face and wholesome womanly ways won the hearts of all and the people in this her adopted home mourn

her as their own.

Our little city and it hospitable people even held a warm corner in her heart. The boys she taught in Sunday School were always her boys even tho they had grown to manhood when she visited here in after life, the girls were always her girls tho grown to womanhood, these people were always her people. It was here she said her best and most useful days had been spent and when her last hours came and the God of eternity was calling her home her last thought was of Lancaster and her people, for she said to a devoted friend who had gone to see her: "Tell them I love them all". As the death dew gathered on her marble brow, she said again, "I love them all". The lives so long interwoven with hers she thought of and spoke of in her last hours.

The body was taken to Germantown for burial. She leaves no children, the two brothers Judge Mat Walton and Joseph F. Walton of Lexington are the only surviving members of her immediate family.

BOY SCOUT MOVEMENT

A GREAT FACTOR IN THE DEVELOP-

MENT OF THE AMERICAN YOUTH

Highly Endorsed By Professor Grant.

Probably the greatest factor for good in the development of American youth today is the organization known as the "Boy Scouts".

A Lancastrian present at the G. A.
R. parade in Washington was much impressed with the efficient service of the "Boy Scouts" on duty at the great Reunion.

Half-grown lads attired in khaki suits, with lengthy staff in hand, were stationed for miles along Pennsylvania Avenue the great Washington thoroughfare, ever ready to lend their youthful strength to tottering veterans about to fall by the way-side, chivalric to escort timid women, helpless children, and aged men across the broad avenue, and eager to hold their well-filled canteens of ice cold water to the thirsty lips of the decrepit paraders. Not only Washington, but all Eastern cities have many hundreds of noble youths subjected to this admirable training. A highly qualified superintendent of one of the Norfolk schools, Mr. Francis Bacon, having rather lately resigned his superin-
tendency to assume the broader educational work as Commissioner in the Boy Scout movement. In every way, Mr. Bacon seeks to augment this great power for good, having recently asked for letters of endorsement from various educators in Virginia; the following from a Norfolk paper, was written by

H. M. Grant, a former Lancastrian, who hopes that the appended epistle
will give additional impetus to the Boy Scouts organization under commendable
directionship at this place:
Mr. Francis Bacon,

Commissioner Boy Scouts,
Norfolk, Va.

Dear Mr. Bacon:

In replying to your request of recent date, relative to my personal observation of the Boy Scout organization as a factor for good and for a refining influence upon "the boy of today," you will permit me to acknowledge the receipt of your communication.

For the past three or four years we have had associated with the Patrick
Henry school several Boy Scout troops.
During that time, almost daily, I have been in contact, both directly and indirectly with these boys, and I can say I have never known one of them who was intimately associated with and active in the movement that did not represent an improved type of coming manhood. We see that these boys are not only taught the attraction, the beauty, and love of nature and out-door
life, but we find they are better students in the school, more respectful to their teachers, more considerate of their classmates, more thoughtful of humanity, and more obedient to their parents.

Many instances have come under my observation during the past few years
that have proved to me that a boy connected with the scout organization has laid as corner stones of his character some of the most promising virtues of manhood. It is my sincerest wish that the interest of every parent could be so awakened as to co-operate in the movement and the membership of the organization could be increased so as to include all the boys of the city of Norfolk.

OUTLOOK GOOD

For Higher Tobacco.

Since the warring nations of Europe have lifted the embargo on tobacco and shipments can now be made to all these countries, it points to higher prices than was received for the weed
last year and perhaps for several years.
The quality in this county is far better than last years crop and many predict they will get almost double what was received last year. The largest tobacco market in the world was opened at Lexington yesterday morning at nine o'clock and more than two hundred thousand pounds were on the breaks.
The range of prices was from three dollars to twenty-seven and a half per hundred. All the tobacco offered was deficient in substance but superior in color to the 1914 crop. Owing to the very backward season very little of it was in good case, which accentuated
the w-sight deficiency.

THE CHILD IS FORGOTTEN

SKIMMED THE CREAM CLOSE

"Has anybody heard the latest news about the Newtons?" inquired Mrs. Jones as the Ladies' Aid Society of the Deer Run Church adjourned its regular monthly meeting.

"Why no, Mr. Newton ain't sick again, is he?" asked Mrs. Smith.

"Oh, no; he's all right again. In fact, he's passed our farm twice lately on his way to town," continued Mrs. Jones.

"The news I was referring to was that I heard it might be straight that the whole family's going to move to Louisville."

"Well I never. What's taking them to Louisville? Why I supposed they'd always live in this neighborhood. It was only year before last that Mr. Newton had that big of fashioned house done over from top to bottom an' water an' gas put in."

"It's the children that's taking them. You see Nellie'll be fourteen this winter an' she'll finish the eighth grade by Christmas. She naturally wants to go to High School. An' then there's Henry, the next one; he wants to get ready to go to the State University, so there you are."

"Well I never. Look here, what're we goin' to do I'd like to know. If this keeps up it won't be very long until we won't have any children worth mentioning in our school, an' we won't have many strong members left in our church, an' no neighborhood that's fit to live in either. The Newtons ain't the first family that's left here an' gone to Louisville to educate their children."

"Well I should say they ain't. I can't count the people that have left here in the past five years on the fingers of both of my hands. An' those that have left were the best we had, too."

"Looks to me like the people in big cities have shown a lot of sense in building big schools an' making them attractive. If the cities have taken the same number of fine people out of every neighborhood in the State of Kentucky that they have out of this little neighborhood, they've about skimmed the cream pretty close."

"But what can we do?"

"Why can't we have good schools?"

"But schools cost money."

"Of course they do. If the big cities can get our best people to leave comfortable farms and homes, it must be a paying proposition. If it is why can't we do the same thing?"

"Why a big school would cost the neighborhood several thousand dollars a year."

"Well, suppose it did. If the ten fine families that have left here in the past five years could have been kept here happy and prosperous, wouldn't it pay?"

"Yes, I reckon it would, because I heard my husband say that every time one of these fine families left, the neighborhood was that much poorer. He said it meant a lot of money gone, because these men rented their farms an' spent the money they got in the big cities."

"You can say what you please, we're never going to have a fine neighborhood until we have real country schools."

"Yes, an' now that you've quoted your husband, I'm going to quote mine. He said last night that we can do a tremendous amount of good improving our own schools, but that we should also move Heaven and earth to get our whole school system out of politics."

"Good; you tell him we are all with him in that, too. Good-bye."

5000 From Louisville.

From Louisville alone 5,000 visitors are expected and it is believed the greater portion of the population of Lexington will spend the day in the Capital city. Already the advance reservations have exhausted the available supply of hotel accommodations and for days the members of the Agricultural Committee have been at their wits end to find quarters for the thousands of visitors who will be in Frankfort for one or more days. The committee has issued a call to the residents of Frankfort asking them to report the number of rooms they will place at the disposal of visitors and has fixed a standard price of $1.00 for sleeping quarters for persons who remain over night. The committee will have the addresses of all persons who have available rooms indexed and will have members of the committee assigned to the hotels and the depots to take visitors in charge and escort them to houses where they can secure quarters, at the price agreed upon.

The Executive Committee in charge of the inauguration determined to do away with the idea of sending out invitations over the State inasmuch as the ceremony is an event of interest to the whole people and in lieu of the usual invitations has issued a general invitation through the columns of the various newspapers asking everyone to become a guest of Frankfort for the event.

Parade The Big Feature.

Naturally the parade will be one of the chief features of the inaugural day ceremonies with the inaugural ball at night as second in importance on the entertainment program. Here too will be displayed the determination of the committee to avoid any appearance of discrimination and the invitation that has been spread broadcast throughout the State includes attendance at the grand ball. The fact that a majority of the visitors will remain over night and attend the ball is giving the committee some concern and the place for holding it has not yet been decided on. Of course a majority of the visitors simply will attend as sightseers but there will be so many persons dancing that it will require a floor much larger than has been available heretofore.

Robert A. Brawner, chief marshal of the parade and the members of the Parade Committee have formulated plans for the inaugural procession which will start from the historic Capital Hotel and wend its way through the business section and across into the residence district in South Frankfort, enroute to the new Capitol. Chief Marshal Brawner has designated as chief marshal familiar with the duties of that office and in a majority of cases trained in the military maneuvers.

Program Not Complete.

The exact program for the inauguration has not been completed but will be announced a few days in advance of the event. Governor-elect Stanley is expected to arrive in Frankfort accompanied by Mrs. Stanley and their three sons on Sunday and they probably will be the guests of friends until they take up their home in the mansion. Governor James B. McCreary will introduce Governor-elect Stanley and Lieutenant Governor-elect James D. Black, to whom the oath of office will be administered by Chief Justice Shackelford Miller of the Court of Appeals. The inaugural address of Governor Stanley promises to be interesting not alone because of his gifted powers of oratory but for the reason that he will outline a plan of procedure for the next four years that will accord with the wishes of all Kentuckians.

The arrangements for police protection while the thousands of visitors are thronging the streets and the show places in Frankfort are being carefully looked after by Chief of Police Mangan and Mayor Joseph Rupert. Cincinnati will send a squad of trained men and Louisville and Lexington will furnish thief-takers of recognized ability to insure absolute protection.

Interesting Trip Promised.

Aside from the interesting incidents that will feature the inaugural plans the trip to Frankfort will be made the occasion for thousands of visitors to get a look at the new Capitol, the historic old State House, the Reformatory, the Arsenal, the Institute for Feeble-minded children, the Colored Normal School and the numerous other points of interest.

As usual Col. E. H. Taylor, Jr., proprietor of the Old Taylor distillery will keep open house and incidentally will extend a general invitation to visitors to roam over his magnificent Woodford county farm and see his champion herd of Hereford cattle and other prize-winning stock. Col Taylor's estate is destined to be the rival of the Haggin farm and already is considered one of the show places.

At Baker's distillery and the many others in and about Frankfort the welcome sign will be hung out to visitors while merchants and citizens throughout Frankfort will have the latch-string hanging outside. Warden Wells of the Reformatory is planning a holiday for the unfortunates incarcerated behind the grim walls of the Reformatory and thousands of visitors probably will take advantage of the opportunity to get a glimpse of the inside.

Rain Will Not Interfere.

The committee in charge of the arrangements for the inaugural ceremonies at the Capitol has completed plans whereby a stand may be thrown up in a few hours either inside or out, according to weather conditions. The disagreeable weather that marked the induction into office of Governor McCreary will have little effect should there be a recurrence, for the broad Capitol will hold several thousand visitors and in the event of rain the stand will be erected inside and the ceremonies held there.

That the attendance will be larger than ever before is conceded. The editors of all the Kentucky newspapers have been placed on the Publicity Committee and through their papers have extended the invitation to Kentuckians to be present and participate in the inaugural ceremonies. The Publicity Committee will have headquarters in a building adjoining the Court House, equipped for the convenience of newspaper men who will be among the visitors and a cordial welcome has been extended to all of the Kentucky newspaper-men to be present and partake of Frankfort's hospitality.

The beautiful scenery in and about Frankfort, the drives along the Kentucky river and the splendid roadways radiating from Frankfort will furnish opportunity for visitors to spend a portion of their time in pleasant sight-seeing trips after the inauguration ceremonies are concluded.

Cheap Railroad Rates.

All steam railroads in the State of Kentucky have published rates to Frankfort and return on account of Inauguration Dec. 7th of three cents per mile plus twenty five cents for the round trip. Tickets to be sold on Dec. 6th and 7th good returning until Dec. 9th midnight.

On above basis the round trip fares to Frankfort and return from the principal cities are as follows:

Louisville . . . $1.90 Covington . . . $2.55
Lexington . . . 1.10 Newport . . . 2.55
Richmond . . . 1.90 Henderson . . . 6.20

FRANKFORT PLANS ELABORATE ENTERTAINMENT FOR KENTUCKY HOSTS AT THE INAUGURATION

(By Roger Burlingame.)

Frankfort, Ky. [Special]—Standing in the shadow of the magnificent $2,000,000 Capitol with his eyes resting on the statue of the martyred William Goebel, his friend and counselor, Augustus Owsley Stanley will take the oath of office as Governor of Kentucky at 12 o'clock, Tuesday, December 7, while the greatest throng that ever has witnessed an inauguration in Frankfort will be present to do him honor.

Carrying out his campaign promises Governor Stanley will once more proclaim himself the champion of economy, retrenchment and the rule of the people.

Arrangements rapidly being completed for the inauguration presage the greatest spectacle it has been the lot of Kentuckians to witness and from reports received by the various committees in charge of the details incidental to the event, Kentucky from the Beargrass, the Bluegrass, the Penny-rile and the Purchase will be present to lend enthusiastic acclaim to the State's new Chief Executive.

Ohio Visitors Coming.

Vielling with the uniformed marching clubs from Louisville, including the Mose Green Club, the oldest and strongest political organization in the metropolis will be the Duckworth Club, the crack Democratic marching club from Cincinnati whose members will join the throng in Frankfort for the inaugural festivities as a tribute to the former Congressman who in many times of battle has been ready to go to the aid of his Democratic brethren in the Buckeye state.

Henderson, the home of Governor-elect Stanley will send a special train with a brass band and a thousand enthusiastic "home folks" while Covington, Newport, Paducah, Owensboro, Bowling Green, Shelbyville and Lexington will have marching clubs in the big parade that is confidently expected to eclipse that of any former inauguration.

From Louisville alone 5,000 visitors are expected and it is believed the greater portion of the population of Lexington will spend the day in the Capital city. Already the advance reservations have exhausted the available supply of hotel accommodations and for days the members of the Agricultural Committee have been at their wits end to find quarters for the thousands of visitors who will be in Frankfort for one or more days. The committee has issued a call to the residents of Frankfort asking them to report the number of rooms they will place at the disposal of visitors and has fixed a standard price of $1.00 for sleeping quarters for persons who remain over night. The committee will have the addresses of all persons who have available rooms indexed and will have members of the committee assigned to the hotels and the depots to take visitors in charge and escort them to houses where they can secure quarters, at the price agreed upon.

The Executive Committee in charge of the inauguration determined to do away with the idea of sending out invitations over the State inasmuch as the ceremony is an event of interest to the whole people and in lieu of the usual invitations has issued a general invitation through the columns of the various newspapers asking everyone to become a guest of Frankfort for the event.

Parade The Big Feature.

Naturally the parade will be one of the chief features of the inaugural day ceremonies with the inaugural ball at night as second in importance on the entertainment program. Here too will be displayed the determination of the committee to avoid any appearance of discrimination and the invitation that has been spread broadcast throughout the State includes attendance at the grand ball. The fact that a majority of the visitors will remain over night and attend the ball is giving the committee some concern and the place for holding it has not yet been decided on. Of course a majority of the visitors simply will attend as sightseers but there will be so many persons dancing that it will require a floor much larger than has been available heretofore.

Robert A. Brawner, chief marshal of the parade and the members of the Parade Committee have formulated plans for the inaugural procession which will start from the historic Capital Hotel and wend its way through the business section and across into the residence district in South Frankfort, enroute to the new Capitol. Chief Marshal Brawner has designated as chief marshal familiar with the duties of that office and in a majority of cases trained in the military maneuvers.

Program Not Complete.

The exact program for the inauguration has not been completed but will be announced a few days in advance of the event. Governor-elect Stanley is expected to arrive in Frankfort accompanied by Mrs. Stanley and their three sons on Sunday and they probably will be the guests of friends until they take up their home in the mansion. Governor James B. McCreary will introduce Governor-elect Stanley and Lieutenant Governor-elect James D. Black, to whom the oath of office will be administered by Chief Justice Shackelford Miller of the Court of Appeals. The inaugural address of Governor Stanley promises to be interesting not alone because of his gifted powers of oratory but for the reason that he will outline a plan of procedure for the next four years that will accord with the wishes of all Kentuckians.

The arrangements for police protection while the thousands of visitors are thronging the streets and the show places in Frankfort are being carefully looked after by Chief of Police Mangan and Mayor Joseph Rupert. Cincinnati will send a squad of trained men and Louisville and Lexington will furnish thief-takers of recognized ability to insure absolute protection.

Interesting Trip Promised.

Aside from the interesting incidents that will feature the inaugural plans the trip to Frankfort will be made the occasion for thousands of visitors to get a look at the new Capitol, the historic old State House, the Reformatory, the Arsenal, the Institute for Feeble-minded children, the Colored Normal School and the numerous other points of interest.

As usual Col. E. H. Taylor, Jr., proprietor of the Old Taylor distillery will keep open house and incidentally will extend a general invitation to visitors to roam over his magnificent Woodford county farm and see his champion herd of Hereford cattle and other prize-winning stock. Col Taylor's estate is destined to be the rival of the Haggin farm and already is considered one of the show places.

At Baker's distillery and the many others in and about Frankfort the welcome sign will be hung out to visitors while merchants and citizens throughout Frankfort will have the latch-string hanging outside. Warden Wells of the Reformatory is planning a holiday for the unfortunates incarcerated behind the grim walls of the Reformatory and thousands of visitors probably will take advantage of the opportunity to get a glimpse of the inside.

Rain Will Not Interfere.

The committee in charge of the arrangements for the inaugural ceremonies at the Capitol has completed plans whereby a stand may be thrown up in a few hours either inside or out, according to weather conditions. The disagreeable weather that marked the induction into office of Governor McCreary will have little effect should there be a recurrence, for the broad Capitol will hold several thousand visitors and in the event of rain the stand will be erected inside and the ceremonies held there.

That the attendance will be larger than ever before is conceded. The editors of all the Kentucky newspapers have been placed on the Publicity Committee and through their papers have extended the invitation to Kentuckians to be present and participate in the inaugural ceremonies. The Publicity Committee will have headquarters in a building adjoining the Court House, equipped for the convenience of newspaper men who will be among the visitors and a cordial welcome has been extended to all of the Kentucky newspaper-men to be present and partake of Frankfort's hospitality.

The beautiful scenery in and about Frankfort, the drives along the Kentucky river and the splendid roadways radiating from Frankfort will furnish opportunity for visitors to spend a portion of their time in pleasant sight-seeing trips after the inauguration ceremonies are concluded.

Cheap Railroad Rates.

All steam railroads in the State of Kentucky have published rates to Frankfort and return on account of Inauguration Dec. 7th of three cents per mile plus twenty five cents for the round trip. Tickets to be sold on Dec. 6th and 7th good returning until Dec. 9th midnight.

On above basis the round trip fares to Frankfort and return from the principal cities are as follows:

Louisville . . . $1.90 Covington . . . $2.55
Lexington . . . 1.10 Newport . . . 2.55

TRY THIS IF HAIR
STARTS FALLING.

At this season of the year many people find their hair coming out at an alarming rate and often fear baldness. This may very easily be the ultimate result if proper scalp treatment is not taken at once. All excessive loss of hair can be almost immediately stopped by the use twice daily of a little Parisian Sage which invigorates and nourishes the slowly dying hair roots into a renewal of healthy normal action. New hair quickly grows on the thin spots, old hair stops falling and the difference is apparent in a few days by the very look of the hair itself taking on new life, lustre and beauty. Parisian Sage can be obtained from R. E. McRoberts or any good druggist. It is not expensive.

Worn Out?

No doubt you are, if you suffer from any of the numerous ailments to which all women are subject. Headache, backache, sideache, nervousness, weak, tired feeling, are some of the symptoms, and you must rid yourself of them in order to feel well. Thousands of women, who have been benefited by this remedy, urge you to

Mrs. Sylvia Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., says: "Before taking Cardui, I was, at times, so weak I could hardly walk, and the pain in my back and head nearly killed me. After taking three bottles of Cardui, the pains disappeared. Now I feel as well as ever. Every suffering woman should try Cardui." Get a bottle today. E-68

A WORD TO RHEUMATICS.

The first day you start to take Rheuma the uric acid poison begins to dissolve and leave the sore joints and muscles. Its action is little less than magical. 50 cents a bottle from R. E. McRoberts and all druggists.

Judge Barhorst of Fort Loramie, Ohio says: "I was cured of a very bad case of rheumatism by using two bottles of Rheuma. Previous to that I was a cripple, walking on crutches."

Rheuma relieves almost instantly the intense suffering from sciatica, lumbago, neuritis, gout, neuralgia and other forms of rheumatism. 9-18-2t.

HOW TO BUTCHER

HOGS AT HOME.

Butcher hogs at home. Give them water, but no feed for a day before killing.

Bleed the hog with an eight-inch straight-bladed knife.

Be sure bleeding is done before scalding or the skin may be left too red.

A heavy blow with an ax between the eyes will stun the animal before sticking.

The meat may spoil if the animal is excited before killing, or the weather is warm afterwards.

Scrape as quickly and rapidly as possible after scalding. The cold carcass is hard to scrape well.

Bleeding will be finished more quickly if the animal lies on a steep slope with its head down hill.

Keep the hog moving in the barrel. If the animal is left pressed against the barrel the hot water cannot get at that part of the carcass.

Scraping is easier if a shovelful of hardwood ashes, a lump of lime, some concentrated lye, or a handful of soft soap has been added to the water.

Use a thermometer. Do not attempt to scald with the water at above 150 degrees. A good scald can be obtained at 140 degrees, but it takes longer.

In opening the carcass, split the pelvibone between the hams with a knife by cutting exactly in the center. To open the breastbone with a knife cut a little to one side of the center, but do not let the point of the knife get behind a rib.

These methods are used at the Missouri College of Agriculture, where students are taught the principles and practice of butchering and curing. There is nothing to prevent the farmer from having the best without the extravagance of a big store bills for salt pork. Both he and the storekeeper will profit if he cures meat for his own table and uses the money saved to buy things he wouldn't otherwise get.

Mrs. McClain's Experience With Croup.

"When my boy, Ray, was small he was subject to croup, and I was always alarmed at such times. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy proved far better than any other for this trouble. It always relieved him quickly. I am never without it in the house for I know it is a positive cure for croup," writes Mrs. W. R. McClain, Blairsville, Pa. For sale by all dealers. 1-mo

ENGLISH PHEASANTS.

The 2,500 English pheasants liberated by the Commission are protected for a number of years, and a warning is hereby given to every one who kills these valuable and costly birds, that if caught, he will be prosecuted. Now, Mr. Hunter, if you see a strange bird do not run your legs off to destroy it, but take every possible means not to injure it yourself, and do not let an opportunity escape you to urge others to do likewise. These pheasants were bought with your money, so see that they are protected until they increase sufficiently to allow shooting.

Sick Two Years With Indigestion.

"Two years ago I was greatly benefited through using two or three bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets," writes Mrs. S. A. Keller, Elida, Ohio. "Before taking them I was sick for two years with indigestion." Sold by all dealers.

RESULTS TELL

There Can Be No Doubt About The Results in Lancaster.

Results tell the tale. All doubt is removed. The testimony of a Lancaster citizen can be easily investigated. What better proof of merit can be had?

Mrs. B. F. Walter, Hill St., Lancaster, says: "Whenever my back becomes lame and painful, a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at R. E. McRoberts &amp; Son's Drug Store, bring me instant relief. At one time I feared that I had serious kidney trouble. The kidney secretions were unnatural and gave unmistakable evidence of disordered kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills in a short time made my kidneys normal." (Statement given March 20th, 1908).

OVER THREE YEARS LATER. Mrs. Walter said: "My kidneys have been in excellent condition since giving my former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills."

THE EDITOR'S PRAYER.

An editor went to church the other day and was called on to lead in prayer, when he responded as follows: "Almighty, the kind Father, who doth from thy throne look down on the government of delinquent subscribers, we most humbly beseech thee to draw near unto them and whisper a few things into their ears that the statutes forbid us to print. Thou knowest our wants, but the subscribers know them not and seldom, if ever, stop to inquire. Let it be known to them that there are big patches on the homestead of our pants, and that there is an aching wound in the front of our back—that we hunger and thirst and they ask us not to come and sup with them. Thou knowest, Lord, that our ink and print paper costs money, but the subscriber knoweth it not, and careth a great deal less. Thou knowest that we are cold and the subscriber bringeth not the wood he promised, and we are shivering and shaking while he roasts his shins before the red hot fires of his mother. Tell him all these things, Lord, and if he faileth and bringeth no succor, banish him to the lower regions to dwell among the Republicans, the Democrats, the Popocrats and Calamity Howlers, and Thine shall be the praise throughout our newspaper career."—Ex.

STOMACH MISERY

QUICKLY VANISHES.

Your money back if you want it is the way in which R. E. McRoberts the popular druggist is selling Mi-o-na, the great dyspepsia remedy.

This is an usual plan, but Mi-o-na has so much merit and is so almost invariably successful in relieving all forms of indigestion that he runs but little risk in selling under a guarantee of this kind.

Do not be miserable or make your friends miserable with your dyspepsia. Mi-o-na will help you. If it doesn't tell R. E. McRoberts that you want your money back and he will cheerfully refund it.

A change for the better will be seen from the first few doses of Mi-o-na and its continued use will soon start you on the road to perfect digestion and enjoyment of food.

Mi-o-na has been so uniformly successful that every box is sold under a positive guarantee to refund the money if it does not relieve. What fairer proposition could be made?

R. E. McRoberts gives his personal guarantee of "money back if you want it" with every box of Mi-o-na that he sells. A guarantee like this speaks for the merit of the remedy. 12-2-2

CARTHAGE WOMAN
TELLS HAPPY STORY

Mrs. Laura Duke of Carthage, Tenn., was a victim of stomach disorders for several years. She lost appetite and her weight fell off. She could not rest at night.

She took Mayr's Wonderful Remedy—just a few doses—and found herself restored.

In fact, Mrs. Duke's recovery was so rapid she was afraid that it could be only temporary. So she waited from September, when she took the remedy, until the following February to pass judgment. Then she wrote:

"I write you in regard to your wonderful stomach remedy that I took last September. I feel better than I have in five years."

"My weight was 127½ pounds; now it is 147½, and I can eat anything I want. I sleep well at night. I would have written before, but I wanted to see how I got along."

Mayr's Wonderful Remedy gives permanent results for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. Eat as much and whatever you like. No more distress after eating, pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Get one bottle of your druggist now and try it on an absolute guarantee—if not satisfactory money will be returned.

Miss Irene Aldridge of Lancaster was the guest Sunday of Misses Margaret Frances and Alice Sutton.

Miss Georgia Dunn of the Bible college Lexington, spent Thanksgiving at home, returning there on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Clark entertained Rev. Tindler and Mr. and Mrs. Will Clark at a 6 o'clock dinner last week.

Mr. Tom Chesnut, Misses Mary Chesnut and Minnie Bogie and Mr. Robert Fox attended the Robinson-Lyne nuptials.

Buy Cream Dairy Feed for your cows. Composed of seven different grains, all crushed fine. For sale by Hudson, Hughes and Farnau.

Rev. Tindler has just closed a short series of meetings at Mason school house, with no additions. A good crowd was in attendance each night.

Mr. Joe Pollard and family returning from meeting on foot one night last week was run against by a runaway horse and was knocked to the ground. The force of the fall sent his little son, whom he was carrying in his arms, several feet further, landing him at his mother's feet. Fortunately no one was hurt.

There was no reflection on anybody or sect when I used the term "Holy Roller" in last week's issue. I have not the faintest idea what their creed is, neither am I acquainted with any of their practices. So it can readily be seen that I did not intend to hurt anybody's feelings, by using the expression "holy-roller," but simply used the term to designate them from other denominations in the community.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy—The Mothers' Favorite.

"I give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to my children when they have colds or coughs," writes Mrs. Verne Shaffer, Vandergrift, Pa. ## Last Year The DANVILLE Market Sold About 9,000,000 Pounds Of TOBACCO

Which was a great increase over any season and insures for Danville a Ten Million market the coming year.

The motto of the Danville market has always been to get the highest price for the growers and to treat all courteously and fair. We do a strictly commission business. The American Tobacco Company has made large improvements in its facilities. We now have hydraulic and electric presses that will enable the buyers with their increased facilities to prize and ship 350,000 pounds daily. This insures to the growers prompt sales and no waiting to unload. Everything will be done with dispatch and in a business like manner. There will be no change from the old buyers who have been with us since the market opened. The following buyers will be with us: A. W. King for Liggett and Myers, Bower & Griffith for R. J. Reynolds, Mr. Claude Burke for J. P. Taylor & Company, representing Lorillard, Douglas Brothers representing American Tobacco Company, J. L. Falkner, representing J. L. Falkner & Co. Jesse Smith, representing C. L. Zeigler & Company and several independent buyers.

Growers should exercise proper care to separate their tobacco properly and to bring the same to market in good condition. Nothing adds more to the price of a crop than proper handling and grading. Do your part and we will do ours and you will get the top prices. Remember, we have experienced men in all departments and automatic scales, so that every farmer can get his own weights.

Our accommodations for both man and beast are among the best in the state. Bring your tobacco to the Danville market; you will always find a hearty Kentucky welcome; someone to attend your wants, and during the sale we will do our best to get you the highest prices for your tobacco. Appreciating your past patronage, we hope you will see your way clear to bring us your crops, guaranteeing you the attendance of all the buyers on the market, the highest market prices, absolutely accurate weights and an all around square deal.

Come to our opening sale and hear our new auctioneers, Col. John D. Scott, of Jessamine County, and W. S. Dunn, of Lincoln County. They will please and entertain you.

IN AT THE FINISH.

For Her Who Makes Her Clothes, but Doesn't Look It.

The woman who sews well often does not undertake to make her own clothes, simply because she knows that it is impossible for her to give them the proper finish. But if once she can master a few details of finishing even the woman who does not sew well will dare to undertake a new frock or blouse of pretentious fashion.

At the trimming and plating shops, under whatever name they go, it is possible to get various sorts of dainty finishes made. Machine hemstitching for cuffs and collars and hems, picot edges, plaiting of all sorts, shirring and cording, all these are done for reasonable sums, and often a bit of such finishing goes a long way toward giving the right air to a homemade frock.

But the woman of ingenuity can do many things herself to give her frocks the right style. For one thing she can substitute a dainty finish for a picot edge. This is used along the edge of bounces and frills with good effect. Simply roll the edge in a tiny roll and whip it over and over, evenly but not specially close together, with strong thread of a matching or contrasting shade.

A net lining for the bodice of a silk frock is easy to make. Again it is the finishing that counts. The neck part should be cut a little lower than the neck of the silk and edged with a very narrow bit of valenciennes lace. The front should be closed with ball and socket snaps and the armholes should be edged with the lace.

When there is a transparent bodice or vest a little underbodice or part of one should be fastened under it. For a transparent vest the underbodice need be no more than a piece of chiffon or net that reaches from the waist to the chest, gathered or shirred to the belt of the bodice and daintily shirred at the top, edged perhaps with narrow lace and fastened together either with ribbons or snaps.

If the sleeves of the frock or bodice in question are of net or chiffon a lining sleeve is often effective, made of chiffon for net sleeves, of net for chiffon ones. It should follow the cut of the outer sleeve, being a very little tighter. To make it especially dainty cut it in two between wrist and elbow and run in by hand a strip of very narrow and dainty lace heading. This takes little time, but gives a really charming effect through the transparent outer sleeve.

Make Your Own Fernery.
You can have success with grapefruit seeds by taking a few precautions. When planting these seeds do not keep any that have been cut. Then before planting the seeds should be soaked for one day or at least for half a day.

Fill the receptacle up to within three-quarters of an inch of the top with dirt mixed with a little sand, on which place the seeds so thickly that no soil can be seen.

Then cover with dirt and keep in a warm, sunny place, wetting with warm water, but not too wet.

The seeds sprout in about five weeks. They are both beautiful and hardy and need practically no attention.

A Thanksgiving Pumpkin.
Thanksgiving time is coming round, and here's a pumpkin that we've found. There's heaps and heaps of others still here in our cornfield on the hill.

But this is biggest of the lot, and ma will cook it in the pot. For pies and when Thanksgiving's come and dinner's ready we'll all have some.

There's turkey, cranberry, pudding and cake.

And other things that ma will make. But when it comes to choose the best Ma's pumpkin pie beats all the rest.

We and the largest pumpkin of all! So pick it plenty Thanksgiving day. And there'll be two helpins' for me and Ma.
